

Luis Aribayos

Secretary General

CEPYME

Luis Aribayos has been Secretary General of CEPYME since March 2021. Previously, he was Director of Economics and Digital Transformation at CEPYME.

Mr Aribayos holds a degree in Economics and Business Administration from the Universidad Complutense de Madrid and a MBA from IE Business School, he has completed his training with various senior management programs such as the Higher Program in Lobby & Advocacy - Management of Public and Private Interests and the Higher Program in Digital Transformation Management, both at IE Business School.

In recent years, his professional activity has been developed in the field of business organizations, holding the position of Secretary General of the Confederación Granadina de Empresarios (CGE) and Vice-President of Clúster Tecnológico OnTech Innovation.

Previously, he developed his activity in companies such as Isolux, IE Business School and as an independent professional, starting his activity in the family business.